* - To be Established

THOMAS YATABE AWARDS FOR 2015 - Mr. Meyer advised that on July 23rd and August 11th, invitations and instructions for nominations for the annual Thomas Yatabe Award were sent out via e-mail. The Award signifies “outstanding contribution made in the implementation and support of the Emergency Planning & Community Right-to-Know Act [“EPCRA”] through achievement(s), accomplishment(s) or superior participation in hazardous materials planning or response.” Only one entity will be awarded this prestigious award annually from each District. Runners up will all receive Certificates of Appreciation signed by the SERC Chair. The deadline for all applications is Friday, August 28th. All nominations will be judged by the LEPC's Awards & Nominations Committee with the results transmitted to the FDEM in early September. Additional copies of the instructions and a hard copy of the nomination form were included in the Agenda materials and will be sent out again via e-mail.

LEPC’s HAZARDOUS MATERIALS PLAN UPDATE - The Plan was updated and submitted to FDEM prior June 30th deadline. A special thanks is hereby extended to all that contributed and provided suggested edit(s). Shortly following approval of the Plan update by the SERC, anticipated at the October 2015 SERC meeting, LEPC staff will compile the updated Plan in various formats on a CD and provide to the required entities and will additionally posted the updated Plan to the LEPC website. It should be noted that the updated Plan did not address Hernando and Citrus data, personnel and resources this year since they were added to the Tampa Bay LEPC District late in the Fiscal Year. Instead, these Counties will be incorporated into the Plan update that will be prepared next year.

RECAP OF QUARTERLY STATE EMERGENCY RESPONSE COMMISSION (SERC) MEETINGS - Mr. Meyer identified that a comprehensive summary of the July 16-17, 2015 SERC meetings, held in Cocoa Beach at Hilton Oceanfront, was included in the detailed Agenda materials transmitted to all LEPC members and available on the LEPC website. Mr. Meyer verbally encapsulated the following SERC meeting highlights:

- Recognition that Chief Don Sessions will be retiring in late 2015 and will resign his post as Training Task Force Chair. The TTF is the working group of the SERC that updates hazardous materials policies, provisions, training requirements and more. Chief Mike Murphy was just elected TTF Vice-Chair for a two-year term. Chief Session's successor will be elected at the next TTF meeting in October.
- Lt. Jonathan Lamm provided an update on the 2016 Hazmat Symposium scheduled for January 20-22, 2016 at the Daytona Beach Ocean Center and will again include a hazmat teams competition component.
- Mr. Lee Newsome of Emergency Response Educators & Consultants advised that Hazmat Competency Assessment Checkoff and Training Guidelines has been updated for the first time in ten years after an extensive evaluation and review period. This resulted in changes to regulations that will take effect on January 1st.
- Mr. Richard Butgereit (FDEM) identified that the SERC's Supplemental Environmental Projects website is progressing nicely. As stated in prior LEPC meetings, facilities found to be in violation with the EPCRA have the option of funding a SEP(s) up to 75% of what would have otherwise been overall fine value imposed by the USEPA. The Chair will provide a brief website demonstration later in the LEPC Agenda.
- Lt. Jonathan Lamm indicated that Clay County was selected for beta-testing the on-line 160-Hr. Hazmat Certification course. If instituted statewide, this could result in a substantial savings for the local fire departments by reducing the backfill and overtime costs.
- FDEM has established an upload portal for all Hazards Analysis submittals. While each transmittal has a limit of 100MB attachments, the attachments can be broken down into smaller increments. "Seven Zip" was the suggested software to use in doing this and would enable FDEM to easily re-combine the data file(s).
- The Hazards Analysis Working Group has suggested a requirement for future reporting to include Facility Site Plans. Additionally, the working group has compiled a listing of a few simple questions that will be added to the 2016 hazardous materials reporting requirements that will be due on March 1, 2016. Those questions are:
 - Do you have a hazmat team?
 - Do you have a written Emergency Response Plan?
 - Does your local fire department have a up-to-date pre-plan for your facility?

- What is the frequency of commodity shipments?
- What is the mode of such shipments?

- Chief Mike Murphy advised that the initiative to integrate the U.S. Coast Guard with the local hazmat teams, in response to maritime incidents, is progressing nicely. The next step is to develop a Memorandum of Understanding between the USCG/ FDEM/FFCA and task the TTF with developing training and operational protocols with the USCG.
- Mr. Paul Wotherspoon of FDEM advised on the elimination of the Withlacoochee LEPC and the subsequent additions of Citrus & Hernando to the Tampa Bay LEPC, Marion and Levy to the North Central Florida LEPC and Sumter County to the East Central Florida LEPC.

HMEP PROGRAM - PLANNING - Mr. Meyer iterated that the HMEP Planning Program has merged with the Facility Disaster Planning Subcommittee (FDPS) to fulfill various planning functions. The FDPS met on July 22, 2015. While the discussed meeting topics included an overview of the July 16-17 SERC meetings, the bulk of discussion focused on discussion of the Commodity Flow Study/Placard Survey and it's associated scheduling and solicitation of volunteers. Mr. Meyer did acknowledge that the Placard Survey will be addressed in greater detail later in the Agenda and did add that a detailed summary of the meeting is included in the LEPC Agenda materials.

HMEP PROGRAM/TRAINING - Subcommittee Chair (and LEPC Vice-Chair) James Johnston affirmed that all FY 2014-15 HMEP training funds have been committed and all but one course conducted. LEPC staff did successfully lobby FDEM for additionally funding to host three 8-Hr. Courses for the incoming Counties of Citrus and Hernando at their request.

The following constitutes a listing and tentative breakdown of expenditures associated with the FY 2014-15 HMEP Training Contract:

Quarter	Date	Name	Expenses	Cumulative	Remaining

FOOTNOTES:

1. "Course Management" (CM) fees consist of staff time to pre-plan, schedule, coordinate, recruit, contact instructor(s) and/or document approved course following conduct as well as facilitate instructor payment following conduct. To the extent available and/or appropriate, Course Management fees are often inclusive of staff's presence at the training for "welcoming" purposes and to identify the LEPC's role.
2. The four 3-Hr. "E-Plan for First Responders" classes cost $1,000 +$750 CM fee = $1,750. Much of the CM expense was associated with full-time attendance of LEPC staff at these events to assist in facilitating the training.
3. The 20-Hr. "Hazmat Symposium" expenses included $1,750 registration (i.e. $175 X 10) + $1,451.90 lodging reimbursements (i.e. $540.90/ Manatee +$279.00/Pinellas +$158.00/Pasco +$474.00/Hillsborough) + $500 CM fee.
4. The 40-Hr. "Clandestine Lab & Site Safety Certification" course cost was actually $15,000. However, the Pasco County Sheriffs & Tampa Police/Bomb Squad jointly contributed $3,600 in the form of a cost share to offset the actual course cost. As reflected above, actual expenses incurred by the LEPC were $11,400 (for course) + $1,000 CM fee = $12,400.

5. The three 8-Hr “Hazmat IQ” courses actually cost $16,350. However, Pinellas County Fire & EMS Administration contributed $10,340 in the form of a cost share to offset the actual course cost. As reflected above, actual expenses incurred by the LEPC were $6,000 (for course) + $1,000 CM fee = $7,000.
6. The 160-Hr. “Hazmat Tech Certification” course will cost $8,400 (Registration - $1,200 X 7 Students) + $500 CM fee = $8,900.
7. The three 8-Hr. “Hazmat Spill/Leak Containment” courses will cost $7,800 + $1,000 CM fee = $8,800.
8. The 40-Hr “Hazmedic” course will cost $18,905, exclusive of “Course Management” fees. However, Pinellas County Fire & EMS Administration will contribute an estimated $4,905 in the form of a cost share to offset the actual course cost. As reflected above, the actual expenses incurred by the LEPC will be $14,000 (for course) + $1,000 CM fee = $15,000.
9. Three 8-Hr. Hazmat Incident Commander course will be held on August 28, 29 & 30, 2015 at the Citrus County Fire Training Center at a cost of $12,000 (course) + $500 CM fee = $12,500.

Subcommittee Chair Johnston did additionally recognize that the Subcommittee tentatively assigned to particular quarters for FY 2015-16 at this morning’s meeting. The following constitutes the schedule at this point:

FUNDING OF 2015-16 HMEP CONTRACT					$61,776.00

* - Above portrayed expenses include nominal “Course Management” fees to be imposed by TBRPC/LEPC. Typically, such fees are less than 15% of course cost. True costs will be reflected in future Tables as the courses are conducted and the actual cost is determined.

It is presumed that the Subcommittee will next convene one hour prior to the scheduled November 18, 2015 meeting (i.e. @ 9:30 a.m.) to, at minimum, refine the training schedule for FY 2015-16.

HMEP TRAINING PROGRAM - Chief Patterson advised the that SERTTRAC calendar of training opportunities available through November 2015 is included in the LEPC Agenda Materials.

LEPC Member Thomas Bosley advised that three 8-Hr. Hazardous Materials Incident Commander Street Level Command and Control is being held at the Citrus County Fire Training Center in Lecanto on September 28-30, 2015. Anyone interested in attending the course should contact Mr. Bosley at 352/341-2169 or via e-mail at tbosley@sheriffcitrus.org. We are seeking to maximize the course at 28-30 attendees per day.

Chief Patterson inquired whether there are any more training opportunities that the remaining membership would like to identify. None were identified.

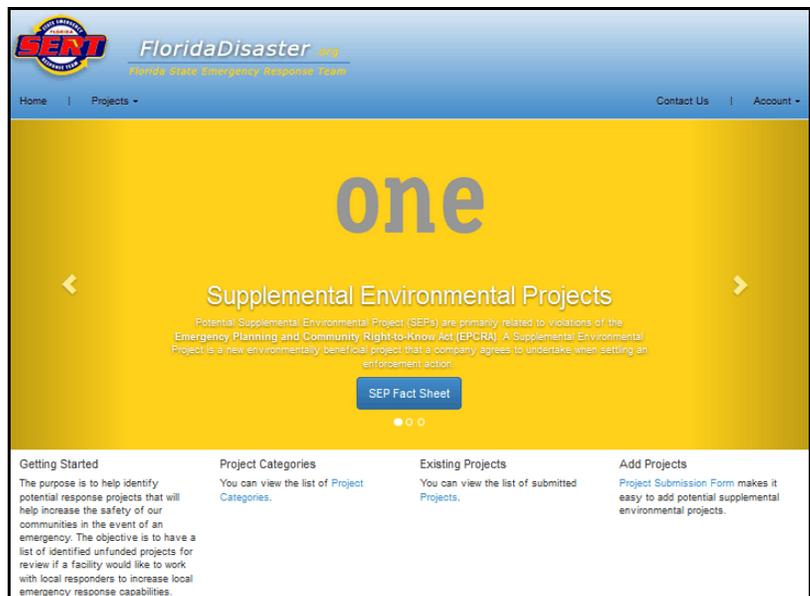

RECENT INCIDENTS IN TAMPA BAY LEPC DISTRICT - Mr. Meyer advised that LEPC staff will be adding this new component to all future LEPC Agenda materials. Typically, each time a hazardous materials incident is called into the State Watch Office, a Report is generated. LEPC is a recipient of all such Reports. He will compile a listing once each Quarter, for inclusion in the Agenda materials, to describe the reported incidents occurring in Citrus, Hernando, Hillsborough, Manatee, Pasco & Pinellas Counties.

Mr. Meyer identified that one of the items included in the Report was a July 29, 2015 incident in which a “health inspector was treated for a possible calcium/sodium hypochlorite exposure and that two persons were evacuated from surrounding apartment building.” LEPC member Gray Frank was present at the LEPC meeting a provided a brief presentation, including photos, since he was the referenced health inspector.

SUPPLEMENTAL ENVIRONMENTAL PROJECTS DATABASE/WEBSITE - Chair Patterson advised that the State of Florida’s Division of Emergency Management in nearing completion of the Supplemental Environmental Projects database and website (www.floridadiaster.org/sep). In fact, proposed project(s) data entry is currently in the “beta testing mode.” As previously identified, Chair Patterson reminded members that the SEP is a mitigation option for facilities found to be in violation to the Emergency Planning and Community Right-to-Know Act and corresponding (potentially large) assessed fine that may be imposed by the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency.

Chief Patterson logged into the website to demonstrate that the project data entry is not cumbersome and tedious as originally anticipated and, if fact, is relatively simple. Each entry will require two persons of contact. He challenged the membership to log on and enter real or sample projects. If sample projects are entered, please include the word “test” somewhere in the title. We are hopeful to have an assortment of real proposals that would benefit the Tampa Bay community in the very near future. The goal is intended to be ready for immediate implementation if selected and the multiple projects should have varying implementation costs.

COMMODITY FLOW STUDY/PLACARD SURVEY OVERVIEW - Mr. Meyer provided a brief overview and presentation indicating that the Commodity Flow Study/Placard Survey is nearing completion. This Study was initiated in March 2015 following the approval of the Scope of Work as the LEPC’s annual HMEP Planning Project. The analyzed data collection locations were all determined by the respective County Emergency Management agency. Mr. Meyer advised that the Study will be released in draft form to staff of the respective County Emergency Management agencies by September 4th for a brief review period and finalized and resubmitted by mid- to late-September in accordance with Contract requirements. The finalized version of the Study will include:

- Recognition of hazmat transportation laws;
- Recognition and participation of County EM partners;
- Identification of monitoring site selection;
- Volunteers & volunteer hours;
- Any noticeable trends; and
- Any conclusions.

Mr. Meyer advised that the Study was challenging but rewarding in that all of the following information was necessary to glean from each passing hazardous materials transport vehicle:

- Date of Survey
- Direction of Travel
- Time of Travel
- Carrier Name
- Placard #
- Vehicle Type
- Chemical Name

Preliminary graphics were shown utilizing data collected during the Placard Survey. It was acknowledged that graphics and data will be prepared for each monitoring location for each monitoring event. Mr. Meyer proceeded to identify some of the heavier hazardous materials locations and the approximate recording volumes.

LEPC member Chet Klinger inquired whether there was any thought of conducting the survey during over night hours since it is presumed that hazardous materials are presumably transported around the clock. Mr. Meyer indicated that was a good question but the LEPC did not have the financial resources, staff or volunteers to proceed.

LEPC member Gary Frank contributed that radiation materials are also often transported by truck but that the minimum volume for requiring a placard has recently been raised.

RECOGNITION FOR ASSISTANCE WITH COMMODITY FLOW STUDY/PLACARD SURVEY -

Mr. Meyer indicated that the Commodity Flow Study/Placard Survey could not have succeeded without numerous volunteers that dedicated their time and efforts towards the objective. In addition to the names of individuals that will be recognized to step forward and receive a Certificate of Appreciation as a token of our gratitude, their corresponding employers, as may be applicable, should also be mentioned for allowing them to volunteer. In total, there were a total of 111 volunteer hours associated with the data collection component alone.

LEPC MEMBER COMMENTS/OTHER BUSINESS - Chair Patterson inquired whether there are any LEPC member comments or additional business to be brought before the LEPC.

LEPC member Pete Dabrowski advised that we are reaching the peak of hurricane season and encouraged all members (and the attending public) to ensure that all of their plans, both personal and business, are up to date. This includes registration with special needs for relevant parties as well as confirmation of resources, medications and supplies needed.

LEPC member Paul Dolak indicated that Brenntag has hosted a series of training of first responders regarding chlorine and bleach and will continue to make their facility available for such use.

TAMPA BAY LEPC LOGO SHIRTS - Chair Patterson advised members to contact John Meyer if interested in acquiring LEPC shirts. Mr. Meyer suggested postponing such requests until the LEPC logo graphic is expanded to additionally illustrate Hernando & Citrus Counties and a determination has been made as to whether the LEPCs will need to be renumbered or no number will be portrayed on the LEPC image.

NEXT MEETING - Chair Patterson announced that the next LEPC meeting date is Wednesday, November 18, 2015 (same time and location).
