

Tampa Bay Regional Planning Council

Project Submission Form 2007

Date:		Does the project meet this criteria?	Yes/No
Project Name:		Project exhibits intergovernmental cooperation and coordination on development
Synopsis of Project:		Project addresses regional issues, such as affordable housing, trained workforce, small business assistance and financial
Total Cost of Project		Project addresses problems with the current highway and/or mass transit system
Regional Benefits		Project provides improvements to the region's infrastructure that have a positive impact on the regional economy
Counties affected		Project supports quality of life issues related to open space, "greenfields", and recreational and cultural facilities
Sponsor of Project		Project supports job creation/retention that benefits the unemployed and underemployed.
Contact info		Project provides workforce development assistance, including skill training and supportive services, i.e. child care,
Name		Project broadens skills for incumbent workers and provides new skills or entrepreneurial training for laid off workers.
Organization		Project targets assistance to those areas in the region most in need.
Address		Project creates jobs at living wage salaries.
City/State/Zip		Comments:
Phone
Email:

Please fill out the boxes above for each project that you would like to submit.

Since the CEDS is a report on the REGION, projects submitted should have a regional impact.